

Marcello Piacentini

Abstract

Polonistics and Philology

The paper presents an outline of Italian philological research on Old Polish literature. The author pays specific attention to studies that have examined some Old Polish texts from a point of view of textual criticism, pointing out the unquestionable contribution, the practical one and also theoretical, to the studies on Old Polish literature.

Keywords: Philology, textual criticism, Old Polish Literature